

Mad Lib: The Masterpiece

_____ had a secret dream to be a sculptor. He/she wanted to make the largest sculpture ever created. It would be _____ feet tall and weigh _____ pounds. Everyone number

Name

number

would be able to see it at _____ amusement park.

Name of park

There would even be a roller coaster next to it called the

_____.

Adjective

Noun

But what to sculpt? A/an _____, a _____, animal

person or a _____? After making the decision, he/she had

noun

to decide what materials to use. He/she decided upon

_____ , some _____ , and

food

condiment

_____ . He/she mixed them together with drink

his/her hands. The he/she added _____ of drops of _____ food coloring. He/she began to work. And color

number

work. And work. It took _____ days to finish the project.

number

“Whew!” he/she said, wiping his/her hands with his/her

_____ . “I’m so tired I could fall asleep on a

noun

_____ in the _____ . But first, piece of furniture

room

let me gaze upon my masterpiece. There’s just one word for it: “ _____ !”

Exclamation