The Friends of the Mauney Memorial Library.....

Step up! Join the Friends today

Are a group of concerned citizens that recognize the importance of the Mauney Memorial Library to the citizens of Kings Mountain, NC.

Our efforts support the library's book and materials collection and programming, as well as the Summer Reading Program.

Our Mission :

The Friends of the Mauney Memorial Library exist to support the mission, goals and objective of the Library and Board of Trustees with community involvement through advocacy, volunteerism and fundraising.

Your Friends Membership....

entitles you to

- Annual April to April Membership
- Invitations to special events
- Early admission to Book Sales
- Knowledge that you are supporting the library and its programs

History of Friends

In 1989, the Friends of the Library was an active group of volunteers. The group ceased existence in 1994. The lifetime memberships that were purchased through the 1989 Friends will be honored by the current organization. Please ask any Board member or the library director if you have any questions.
